If you have any questions about the processing of your data, please contact via email: dstecher@mail.uni-paderborn.de.

About data collection, data processing and disclosure to third parties

We process your data to conduct and evaluate a user study. The study is carried out as part of the master's thesis "NutriLearnVR: Educating Nutrition in VR" and serves to analyze user behavior within the current implementation status of the application. The data collected will only be used as part of the evaluation for the master's thesis and will not be passed on to third parties.

The following personal data is processed in this context: Gender, age, height, weight and selection of food within the software about which conclusions about individual food preferences can be drawn if necessary. In addition, a video recording is made from the user's perspective, which is stored locally on the device used for the evaluation period. Names and contact details are not collected in this study and will therefore never be directly linked to the actual study data.

Insofar as we have obtained your consent for the processing of personal data, Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 a) GDPR serves as the legal basis. Otherwise, the processing is based on Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 b) and f) GDPR.

The collected study data will be deleted or anonymized after completion of the master's thesis.

In general, we only process personal data in countries within the EU or the European Economic Area that are subject to the scope of the GDPR. Personal data is not transferred to other countries.

Your Rights

You have the rights to information, rectification, erasure, restriction and data portability (Art. 15-20 GDPR). You can object to the processing in accordance with Art. 21 GDPR.

You have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority if you believe that the processing of your personal data violates the GDPR.

You have the right to withdraw your declaration of consent under data protection law at any time. The withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

"I hereby confirm that I have read the privacy policy, have understood its content and agree to the conditions described therein. My signature indicates my consent to the data protection guidelines of the study."
